

National Maritime Historical Society

Special Prizes for Maritime History

The National Maritime Historical Society offers special prizes for National History Day entries that address a maritime-related topic. The prizes consist of the following:

First Prize

- For the students:
Complimentary membership in NMHS for 1 year, which includes the quarterly Sea History magazine.
Monetary award/scholarship of $150 per winning entry.
For group entries, the $150 award will be divided equally among the group.
Certificate of Achievement.
Listing on the NMHS website www.seahistory.org and in Sea History magazine.
- For the teachers of the winning students:
Complimentary membership in NMHS for 1 year, which includes the quarterly Sea History magazine.
Listing on the NMHS website www.seahistory.org and in Sea History magazine.
The two-volume set of Voyages: Documents in American Maritime History by Dr. Joshua M. Smith.
Volume I: The Age of Sail, 1492-1865
Volume II: The Age of Engines, 1865-Present

Second Prize

- For the students:
Complimentary membership in NMHS for 1 year, which includes the quarterly Sea History magazine.
Certificate of Achievement.
Listing on the NMHS website www.seahistory.org and in Sea History magazine.
- For the teachers of the winning students:
Complimentary membership in NMHS for 1 year, which includes the quarterly Sea History magazine.
Listing on the NMHS website www.seahistory.org and in Sea History magazine.